“Keeping a tender heart toward those in need”

House Rules

Tender Hearts House of Hope has become a safe haven for women and their children in need of shelter, food, clothing, educational opportunities, and most importantly ... compassion. One of the Scriptures very dear to my heart is Hebrews 11:6 – “but without faith it is impossible to please God...” It is both a joy and a privilege to share with each lady that there is hope in Christ, and through their faith in HIM they are able to overcome struggles and obstacles to regain a purpose in life. Please continue to pray for them daily as they face many challenges; but among the challenges there are also times to celebrate the victories. Recently, we had our first lady complete her GED. We’re certain she’ll be able to continue to progress and achieve her goals with God’s strength. May we each continue to have a “tender heart” toward those in need!

Ministry Highlights

Our greatest resource here at Tender Hearts is our volunteers. As our ministry grows, so does the need for more volunteers. Some are able to give a few hours of their time to Tender Hearts each month as they can, some volunteer scheduled hours each week, and some seem to live here. God bless them all! Our volunteers lead busy lives, and sometimes must pull back or rearrange their volunteer hours to suit the needs of family or work responsibilities. This is where we are right now at Tender Hearts: we are in need of more volunteers as some of our regulars need to focus on other commitments. If you are able to hang clothes, change a light bulb, sort through donations, or handle a broom, then... we have something you can do at Tender Hearts. Please volunteer and help us help others in need!

Volunteer of the Month

Adam MacInnis is a breath of fresh air with his cheerful disposition and willingness to do whatever is asked of him. Adam was born in Canada but now lives in Rock Hill, SC. He is a graduate of Winthrop University and currently works for The Herald as a reporter. Adam doesn't like all the “purple hearts” associated with our ministry (“because they're not manly”), but he definitely does have a “heart” for helping and serving others. Thank you, Adam!

Thrifty Times

Tender Hearts Thrift Store is offering some specials this month. All books are “Buy One, Get One Free” all month long. Also, children’s clothes (size 0-3T only) are also BOGO Free on the 1st and 3rd Thursdays this month.

Wish List

On April 15th, Tender Hearts will be kicking off its Capital Campaign to purchase the Tender Hearts House of Hope building and grounds. For more information on how YOU can get involved, contact sue@tenderheartsinyork.org.
